

Welcome

Interactive Learning Experience

Maasai Tribal Chief Salaton Ole Ntutu

RESERVE YOUR TICKETS NOW

- RSVP is required due to very limited space
- ONLINE with Paypal at www.asanteafrica.org
- BY EVITE - RSVP

DATE AND LOCATION

February 20th– Saturday
6:30pm to 8:30pm

Dublin Library
Community Room
200 Civic Center Plaza Drive
Dublin, CA 94568

TICKETS

Child under 12 $10
Adult $25

Tax Deductible Donation to Asante Africa Foundation

Maasai Tribal Chief Salaton Ole Ntutu, a visionary partner with Asante Africa Foundation from inception, is here to share with you his immense knowledge about Kenya, its wildlife, and his culture, while increasing awareness of the current social and cultural challenges facing the continent of Africa. And you might even hear a story or two of life as a warrior.

Photo © Bill Gozansky

Proceeds benefit Asante Africa Foundation Projects

Your donations support the following Kenya projects and students

- 22 students require scholarships
- 2 schools needing water wells and tanks
- 6 classrooms, and dining room
- 1 girls dormitory plus beds to sleep 100 students

For more info:

925-292-0245

www.asanteafrica.org

